Creating a Comic Book

Create a comic book about life in the Neolithic Age. Use the characters of Neolithic Nel and Neolithic Nick to tell a story about how ways of life changed over time, from the Paleolithic to the Neolithic Age.

Cover Page

Story Pages

The inside of the comic book should have three story pages. Each story page will be related to one of the topics you studied (food supply, shelter, community, jobs, or trade). Select the three topics you think represent the most important changes from the Paleolithic to the Neolithic Age. Write and draw on Student Handout 3C: Comic-Book Story Page Template, or create your own story pages.

At the top of each story page, write one or two sentences that describe life during the Paleolithic Age. Complete the rest of the story page to show how the way of life changed in the Neolithic Age and why these changes are important. Follow these steps:

- Cut, color, and glue drawings from Student Handout 3D: Comic-Book Characters.
- Write informative speech or thought bubbles for the characters. Two bubbles should explain ways that life changed in the Neolithic Age, and two should explain why these changes are important.
- Add your own drawings of other animals, objects, and scenery.
- Add other details to make your comic book more realistic.
